

News & Insights

Hall Estill Welcomes Attorney David Pardue to OKC Office

May 31, 2018

Hall Estill, Oklahoma's leading regional law firm, with offices in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Denver and Northwest Arkansas, has announced the addition of W. Davidson "David" Pardue as a Shareholder in the Oklahoma City office.

"We are excited to add another highly experienced and very well-respected attorney to our expanding Oklahoma City office," said Mike Cooke, managing partner for Hall Estill. "David's excellent reputation and his skills and background are a great addition to the firm."

Pardue's background is in commercial law, civil litigation, trial and appellate practice, energy and natural resources, oil and gas law, general business, real estate, and construction and creditor's rights. His current practice primarily involves representation of small and medium sized businesses, oil and gas operations, and commercial litigation. He graduated from the University of Oklahoma College of Law.

In addition to being a member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, Pardue is a member of the Federal District Courts in Oklahoma, the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals, the Federal Court of Claims and the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. He is also an enthusiastic community advocate with membership in Rotary International, and has served as an Elder, Deacon and Clerk of the Session at Westminster Presbyterian Church and on the Board of Management of the YMCA Oklahoma City Central Branch. Pardue was also recently elected to the Board of Trustees of the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Austin, Texas.

Attorneys

- W. Davidson Pardue