

Grace Johnson offers Pro Bono advice for Startups during Entrepreneurial Law Project

March 6, 2023

On March 4, Hall Estill Arkansas Attorney Grace Johnson participated in a pro bono event for startups called the Entrepreneurial Law Project. Hosted by the University of Arkansas School of Law and the Office of Entrepreneurship and Innovation, the event paired local attorneys and law students with startups needing legal assistance establishing organizational structure and documentation.

Attorneys

- Grace Keegan Johnson