

Hall Estill Welcomes Real Estate Attorney

Ann Chandler to Denver Office

August 26, 2021

Hall Estill, a regional Southwestern law firm, with offices in Denver, Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Northwest Arkansas, announces the addition of Ann Chandler to the Denver office in a Special Counsel position.

“Ann makes a great addition to the team,” said Mike Cooke, Managing Partner for Hall Estill. “Her in-depth knowledge of real estate law will translate to excellent counsel to our clients.”

Ann practices in the area of real estate law, representing commercial developers in acquisition, financing, development and leasing of real estate property. She is licensed to practice in both Florida and Wisconsin, and is experienced in land use, development and zoning issues, real estate licensing and regulation, and title insurance issues. Further, she served two years as in-house counsel for a large retail chain.

Ann has been recognized by Best Lawyers in America in the areas of Business Organizations (including LLCs and Partnerships), land use and zoning and real estate law. She attended the University of Florida before transferring to Marquette University where she earned her undergraduate degree in political science and history, and she earned her J.D. from Marquette University Law School. Further, she taught Real Estate Transactions at the University of Wisconsin Law School and was an adjunct faculty member at the University of Central Florida.
