

Hall Estill Welcomes Braden W. Mason to its OKC Office

February 24, 2023

Hall Estill, Oklahoma's leading law firm with offices in Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Denver and Northwest Arkansas, has announced the addition of Braden W. Mason as the newest lawyer to its Oklahoma City office.

"We are pleased to welcome Braden to our team," said Steve Ray, managing partner for Hall Estill. "His understanding and practice of insurance litigation will make him a valuable addition to our practice and clients."

Braden earned his J.D. from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, with honors, in 2021 where he was named a member of the Order of the Coif, an honor bestowed on those finishing law school ranked in the top 10% of their class. While pursuing his degree, he received an Oklahoma Bar Association Business Section Award and worked for the Honorable Judge Robert Hudson at the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals, where he focused on reviewing post-conviction appeals.

During his time at OU Law, Braden earned the Andrew M. Coats Merit Scholarship, was a member of the Phi Delta Phi Honor Fraternity, and served on the Board of Advocates. He received his B.A. in Philosophy in 2018 from the University of Oklahoma.
