

Tami Hines

Associate

T 405-553-2315

F 405-553-2855

THines@HallEstill.com

Tami J. Hines assists clients primarily in bankruptcy and complex commercial litigation, as well as oil and gas litigation, construction/contract litigation, and general corporate litigation matters. She routinely practices in the federal and state courts of Oklahoma, and she has practiced in other federal courts, including Kansas, California, and Texas.

Tami has been named a Rising Star in Business Litigation by Super Lawyers and a Best Lawyer in Commercial Litigation, and she serves on the board for several organizations, including the Young Professionals in Energy – Oklahoma City, for which she serves as both its General Counsel and Co-Chair of the Membership and Development Committee. She is also a member of the firm's Recruitment & Diversity Committee.

While in law school she was the Editor in Chief of the Oklahoma City University Law Review for the 2013-2014 academic year and a William J. Holloway American Inn of Court student member. Tami received a Business Law Certificate with a Commercial Law concentration. She also externed under the Honorable Justice Noma D. Gurich of the Oklahoma Supreme Court as well as interned for JAG and the Honorable Judge Colin Long of Missouri's 25th Judicial Circuit. She was awarded the Judge Alfred P. Murrah Sr. Award for Outstanding Academic Performance, an award given in Memory of Chief Judge Alfred P. Murrah Sr., and the J. William Conger Distinguished Student Award.