

The image features a professional headshot of Zachary Al-Tabbaa, a man with dark hair, smiling, wearing a grey suit, white shirt, and a dark red tie. He is positioned in front of a city skyline with various buildings, including a prominent clock tower. In the top left corner, there is a dark grey rectangular box containing the firm's logo.

HALL
ESTILL
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Zachary “Zach” S. Al-Tabbaa

Associate

Resident in Denver; Licensed in Oklahoma and New Mexico; not currently licensed in Colorado

F 918-594-0505

Cell 915-525-0916

zal-tabbaa@hallestill.com

Zachary Al-Tabbaa joined Hall Estill in 2023 and is a patent attorney who focuses his practice on patent prosecution and litigation, trademark prosecution and enforcement, and general IP counseling. Zach has experience representing clients in patent and trademark matters and has assisted in litigating complex civil litigation, commercial disputes, and intellectual property matters in federal court. While in law school, Zach served as an intern for the U.S. Patent and Trademark office for a year.