

International

Our International Law attorneys counsel clients on business issues throughout the world. We have developed a network of reliable and reputable law firms, banks and specialized consulting entities – including engineering and investment consortiums – in Latin America, which allow us to provide our clients top quality, expedient, and effective counsel and assistance throughout the region. Specifically, we practice in the following areas:

- Export Administration
- Foreign Investments, Trans-border & Multinational Transactions
- International Arbitration & Alternate Dispute Resolution
- International Trade