

Private Equity

Hall Estill Private Equity attorneys are skilled in handling complex private equity transactions for national and international clients. We assist clients with mergers and acquisitions, fund formation, taking a company private, leveraged buyouts, as well as venture and capital growth. In addition, we are well-versed in representing clients at each stage of the investment, including structure investments for private equity funds and private equity transactions in Oklahoma, regionally, nationally and internationally.